I. Christian Spirituality Vis-à-vis Devotion to Mary

Devotees or Disciples?

In the Context of the Thirunalla of our Lady of Fatima, when thousands of Christians and non-Christians throng to Fatimamatha, It is fitting to know the difference between Spirituality and Devotions with piety and sentiment. Most Catholics remain at the level of Devotions to Mary, Joseph, Antony and even to 'Infant Jesus'. How many nuns and priests cum Bishops remain as Infants in spirituality, only admiring Saints and even Jesus Himself. They remain at the level of Infants and devotees instead of Disciples of Jesus. Jesus demands his followers to come to Him with One's Cross, since He is the model of Cross bearer and Priest and victim of the sacrifice offered on the Altar of the Cross itself. Even infant Jesus' image is portrayed as the 'most miraculous Infant Jesus'. Let us believe in Christian Discipleship as Cross, for which Devotions to Mary, Joseph, Antony help and thus celebrate the Diocesan Feast of OLF!

Science and Spirituality

'While Science is busy exploring the outer space, Spirituality is busy exploring the inner space'. Every once in a while, - nutiko, kotiko- God sends somebody with a unique vision to mark a new course of spirituality specific to those times and needs of people. Those people mark a beginning of a new era. Since the scientific revolution of the 18th-century Enlightenment, the relationship of science to religion and to spirituality has developed in complex ways. The natural sciences, sometimes are devoted with religious meaning, some other times with antireligious implications and, in many modern contexts, with no religious significance at all. Sometimes there is even antagonism between science and religion!

Religion and Spirituality

Religion and Spirituality are not one and the same, nor are they entirely distinct from one another. They overlap one another. While spirituality may incorporate some elements of religion, it is generally broader. In spirituality the central focus is where do I personally find meaning, interconnectedness, peace, value, etc. while the focus of Religion is what is true, good, right, and the like. They overlap one another with thrust on HOW and WHAT.

Spirituality is about seeking a meaningful connection with something bigger than oneself, which can result in positive peace, awe, contentment, gratitude and acceptance.

Meaning of Spirituality

Traditionally, spirituality referred to a religious process of reformation of life which "aims to recover the original shape of man", oriented at "the image of God 'as exemplified by the founders and sacred texts of the religions of the world. The term was used within early Christianity to refer to a life oriented toward the Holy Spirit and broadened during the Middle ages to include mental aspects of life. In modern times, the term both spread to other religious traditions and broadened to refer to a wider range of experience, including a range of mysterious and religious traditions. Modern usages tend to refer to a subjective experience of a sacred dimension and the "deepest values and meanings by which people live", often in a context separate from organized religious institutions, such as a belief in a supernatural (beyond the known and observable) realm, a quest for an ultimate or sacred meaning, religious experience or an encounter with one's own "inner dimension".

Modern Spirituality

Modern notions of spirituality developed throughout the 19th and 20th century, mixing Christian ideas with Western mysterious traditions and elements of Asian, especially Indian, religions. Spirituality became increasingly disconnected from traditional religious organizations and institutions. It is sometimes associated today with philosophical, social, or political movements such as liberalism, feminism, green politics, transcendentalism, Romanticism, Universalism, Sexism, etc. The influence of Asian Traditions on western modern spirituality was also furthered by Swamy Vivekananda's Neo-Vedanta and universalism., and the spread of social welfare, education and mass travel after World War II.

Secular Spirituality

Increasing number of people speak of spirituality outside of religion often define themselves as spiritual but not religious and generally believe in the existence of different "spiritual paths", emphasizing the importance of finding one's own path to spirituality. About 24% of the youth identifies itself as "spiritual but not religious". Not all modern notions of spirituality embrace transcendental ideas. Secular spirituality emphasizes humanistic ideas on moral character with qualities such as love, compassion, patience, tolerance, forgiveness, contentment, responsibility, harmony, and a concern for others. These are aspects of life and human experience which go beyond a purely materialist view of the world without necessarily accepting belief in a supernatural reality or any divine being.

Conclusion

Love of God in Christ is where Christian Spirituality begins and ends aided by Popular Devotions. While Mary's Role in the life of Christ and in the history of salvation unparalleled, non-negotiable and therefore devotion to her from Biblical and theological basis should be fostered. Miracles, apparitions are real, not fake and might necessary for humans, but they should not be the root of Devotion to Mary, Joseph and any other saint. Marian feasts and especially the Solemnity of Our Lady of Fatima should not resemble the worship of Mary. Latria=worship, which is due only to God (1st Commandment of the Decalogue) is to be given only to God and to other Saints Dulia=honour only. But to Mary Hyper Dulia could be given because she is exceptional even among the saints! Ave Maria!! Hail OLF!

Prayers and Blessings for the Diocesan Feast of Our Lady of Fatima

II. Holy Father's Intention

Intention for Evangelization-Sacrament of Reconciliation: Let us pray that we may experience the sacrament of reconciliation with renewed depth, to taste the infinite mercy of God !

III. Pope Francis: with faith, prayer and penance we overcome evil

Pope Francis explained how the Word of God shows us the path to live fruitfully the 40 days of Lent we have just embarked upon.

The account in Mark's Gospel (Mk 1:12-15) on this first Sunday of Lent emphasizes that the "Spirit drove Jesus out into the desert". There, the Pope noted, Jesus remained forty days and was tempted by Satan. The natural and symbolic reality of the desert is the place "where God speaks to the human heart and prayer is a response", he observed, but it is also the place of "trial and temptation" and the "duel" between Jesus and the devil begins, which will end with the Passion and the Cross." At the same time, Jesus' entire existence is placed under the sign of the Spirit of God, who animates, inspires and guides him.

The Pope continued that the entire ministry of Christ marks a struggle against the Evil One - whether healing from illness, liberating the possessed, and forgiving sins. While it may appear that the devil has the upper hand when the Son of God is rejected, captured and condemned to death, in reality, the Pope remarked, "death was the last 'desert' to cross" to finally defeat Satan and free us all from his power.

The Pope said when we read about the desert and temptations, Christians are reminded that by following in the Lord's footsteps, our lives also are a struggle against the spirit of evil, where the devil can tempt us. He said we must be fully aware of the presence of this astute enemy "who seeks our eternal condemnation, our failure, and prepare to defend ourselves against him and to combat him." He added that Jesus never dialogued with the devil. Rather, Jesus always sent him away or responded with the Word of God. We also, the Pope said, should never enter into dialogue with the devil and his temptations. At the same time, the grace of God assures us, that with faith, prayer and penance, we can defeat the enemy.

In conclusion, the Pope said "We are called to walk in God's footsteps, renewing our Baptismal promises: renouncing Satan, and all his works and all his empty promises.". He then encouraged us to call on the maternal intercession of the Virgin Mary.

IV. Decree on Year of St. Joseph's Indulgence

The gift of special indulgences is granted on the occasion of the Year of Saint Joseph, summoned by Pope Francis to celebrate the 150th anniversary of the proclamation of Saint Joseph as patron of the universal Church. The plenary indulgence is granted under the usual conditions (sacramental confession, Eucharistic communion and prayer according to the intentions of the Holy Father) to the faithful who, with a spirit detached from any sin, participate in the Year of Saint Joseph on the occasions and in the manner indicated by this Apostolic Penitentiary:

- Meditate for at least 30 minutes on the Our Father
- Participate in a spiritual retreat of at least one day that includes a meditation on Saint Joseph
- Perform a corporal or spiritual work of mercy
- Recite the Holy Rosary in families and between the husband and wife
- Entrust their work daily to the protection of Saint Joseph and to all believers who invoke with their prayers the intercession of the worker of Nazareth
- Pray the litany of Saint Joseph (for the Latin tradition), or the Akathistos to Saint Joseph, in its entirety or at least part of it (for the Byzantine tradition), or some other prayer to Saint Joseph, typical of the other liturgical traditions, for the persecuted Church and for the relief of all persecuted Christians
- Pray any lawfully approved prayer or act of piety in honor of Saint Joseph, for example "To you oh blessed Joseph," especially on:
 - March 19th (Solemnity of St. Joseph)
 - May 1st (Feast of St. Joseph the Worker)
 - December 26th (Feast of the Holy Family)
 - The Sunday of Saint Joseph (according to the Byzantine tradition)
 - The 19th day of every month
 - Every Wednesday (a day dedicated to the memory of the Saint according to the Latin tradition)
 - The gift of plenary indulgence extends particularly to
 - The elderly
 - The sick
 - The dying
 - All those who for legitimate reasons cannot leave their home

who, with the spirit detached from any sin and with the intention of fulfilling, as soon as possible, the three usual conditions, in your own home or wherever the impediment holds you, pray an act of piety in honor of Saint Joseph, consolation of the sick and patron of good death, confidently offering God the pains and difficulties of his life.

V. International Women's Day (March 8)

International Women's Day is a global day celebrating the social, economic, cultural and political achievements of women. The day also marks a call to action for accelerating gender parity. Significant activity is witnessed worldwide as groups come together to celebrate women's achievements or rally for women's equality.

Marked annually on March 8th, International Women's Day (IWD) is one of the most important days of the year to:

- celebrate women's achievements
- raise awareness about women's equality
- lobby for accelerated gender parity
- fundraise for female-focused charities

What's the theme for International Women's Day?

The campaign theme for International Women's Day 2021 is 'Choose To Challenge'. A challenged world is an alert world. And from challenge comes change. So let's all #Choose To Challenge.

Do we still need an International Women's Day?

Yes! There's no place for complacency. According to the World Economic Forum, sadly none of us will see gender parity in our lifetimes, and nor likely will many of our children. Gender parity will not be attained for almost a century.

VI. Year of St. Joseph: Model Husband and Father- March 19

Too often we forget that an angel also appeared to Joseph, to prepare him for the significant role He would play in God's saving plan for the whole human race. He was invited to exercise his human freedom, to give his assent to the Lord's invitation - and he did. His manly response to God reminds all men that actions speak louder than words:

"Now the birth of Jesus Christ took place in this way. When his mother Mary had been betrothed to Joseph, before they came together she was found to be with child of the Holy Spirit; and her husband Joseph, being a just man and unwilling to put her to shame, resolved to send her away quietly. But as he considered this, behold, an angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream, saying, "Joseph, son of David, do not fear to take Mary your wife, for that which is conceived in her is of the Holy Spirit; she will bear a son, and you shall call his name Jesus, for he will save his people from their sins". When Joseph woke from sleep, he did as the angel of the Lord commanded him." (Matthew 1:18 - 24). From antiquity, Christians have reflected upon Joseph as a model of genuine manly virtue - and for good reason. His response to the angel teaches all men how we are called to respond to God's invitations in our own lives. We use an expression to refer to men who are comfortable in their skin and content with being men. We say of such a man -He is a man's man. Joseph is a true man's man. He was a man of few words, he spoke through his actions, and he did as the angel of the Lord had commanded. Joseph's response was action. Joseph was a man for others. Though the Scriptures say so little about Joseph, even that absence speaks volumes. Why? Because to Joseph, he was not the one who was important, others were. He loved Mary above himself and his behavior was just as a result of his love. He was prepared to do the right thing when she was found to be with child. He could have chosen otherwise. How refreshing this upright manly behavior is in an age where men often cower in the face of difficulty.

Joseph was a man of faith and courage. Along with loving his betrothed, he loved His God courageously. He had a close, intimate personal relationship with the God of His Fathers. In fact, this just man was, in a sense, the last Patriarch, completing the lineage. Through his response of faith, He would receive the great gift promised for all men and women and hold in His arms the One that His fathers had only longed to see. God's messenger, an angel, visited Joseph in a dream. We need to learn to give our Yes to the God whose love always invites participation. Joseph is our teacher and shows us the way, a true Man's Man, calling all men to follow Jesus. Teaching us that actions speak louder than words.

VII. The Feast of the Annunciation (March 25)

The feast of the Annunciation, now recognized as a solemnity, was first celebrated in the fourth or fifth century. Its central focus is the Incarnation: God has become one of us. From all eternity God had decided that the Second Person of the Blessed Trinity should become human. Now, as Luke 1:26-38 tells us, the decision is being realized. The God-Man embraces all humanity, indeed all creation, to bring it to God in one great act of love. Because human beings have rejected God,

Jesus will accept a life of suffering and an agonizing death: “No one has greater love than this, to lay down one’s life for one’s friends” (John 15:13).

Mary has an important role to play in God’s plan. From all eternity, God destined her to be the mother of Jesus and closely related to him in the creation and redemption of the world. We could say that God’s decrees of creation and redemption are joined in the decree of Incarnation. Because Mary is God’s instrument in the Incarnation, she has a role to play with Jesus in creation and redemption. It is a God-given role. It is God’s grace from beginning to end. Mary becomes the eminent figure she is only by God’s grace. She is the empty space where God could act. Everything she is she owes to the Trinity.

Mary is the virgin-mother who fulfills Isaiah 7:14 in a way that Isaiah could not have imagined. She is united with her son in carrying out the will of God (Psalm 40:8-9; Hebrews 10:7-9; Luke 1:38). Together with Jesus, the privileged and graced Mary is the link between heaven and earth. She is the human being who best, after Jesus, exemplifies the possibilities of human existence. She received into her lowliness the infinite love of God. She shows how an ordinary human being can reflect God in the ordinary circumstances of life. She exemplifies what the Church and every member of the Church is meant to become. She is the ultimate product of the creative and redemptive power of God. She manifests what the Incarnation is meant to accomplish for all of us.

VIII. Holy Week

Holy Week also known as Great and Holy Week by the Eastern Catholics and orthodox is the week preceding Easter and the final week of Lent. Holy Week begins with Palm Sunday and ends with Holy Saturday, the day before Easter Sunday. Holy Week includes Holy Thursday (also known as Maundy Thursday) and Good Friday, which, together with Holy Saturday, are known as the Triduum. Before the revision of the liturgical calendar in 1969, Holy Week was the second week of Passiontide; in the current calendar, Passiontide is synonymous with Holy Week.

Significance of Holy Week

During Holy Week, Christians commemorate the Passion of Christ, who died on Good Friday in reparation for the sins of mankind, and rose on Easter Sunday to give new life to all who believe. Thus, while Holy Week is solemn and sorrowful, it also anticipates the joy of Easter through the recognition of God's goodness in sending his son to die for our salvation.

IX. Palm Sunday of the Lord's Passion (March 28)

They took branches of palm trees and went out to meet him, crying, "Hosanna! Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord, even the King of Israel!" And Jesus found a young ass and sat upon it; as it is written, "Fear not, daughter of Zion; behold, your king is coming, sitting on an ass's colt!" (Jn 12:13-15).

Today we commemorate Christ's entry into Jerusalem for the completion of the Paschal Mystery. In the old calendar before Vatican II, the Church celebrated Passion Sunday two Sundays before Easter, and then Palm Sunday was the beginning of Holy Week. The Church has combined the two to reinforce the solemnity of Holy Week.

The Palm Sunday procession is formed of Christians who, in the "fullness of faith," make their own the gesture of the Jews and endow it with its full significance. Following the Jews' example we proclaim Christ as a Victor. Hosanna to the Son of David! Blessed is He who comes in the Name of the Lord. But by our faith we know, as they did not, all that His triumph stands for. He is the Messiah, the Son of David and the Son of God. He is the sign of contradiction, acclaimed by some and reviled by others. Sent into this world to wrest us from sin and the power of Satan, He underwent His Passion, the punishment for our sins, but issues forth triumphant from the tomb, the victor over death, making our peace with God and taking us with Him into the kingdom of His Father in heaven.

7. WADES

As COVID-19 is retreating, the ministry of Education in our state of Telangana at first phase opened the schools for classes 9th and above. There has been very good response that 80% to 90% of Students attending classes physically. Encouraged by the positive response of the above classes and there are no causalities reported, government has decided to open even 6,7,8 classes from 1st of March 2021. It's rather a good news to all sections of people like Parents, children and more specifically to teaching faculty.

On the hand it's going to be a great challenge to institutional heads/ management to observe COVID-19 guidance as the number of students will increase with the coming of 6,7,8 classes. The management has to take double care and should closely monitor the spread of Virus, observing SMS i.e sanitizing the premises, wearing masks and maintaining social distance. We hope and pray that all our Educational institutions and students are safe under the protection of Almighty God.

Fr. M. JayaPaul, DM

Banjara Mission is our Diocesan mission with a passion to bring the Banjara people into the Kingdom of God through saving faith in Jesus Christ. We the Gaunellian Fathers and Nirmala Sisters are assisting to develop this mission. So after long time we have started to visit the people with the guidance of the Parish Priest, Mahabubabad.

In and around Mahabubabad there are Poosapalli, Bodathanda, Bhajanathanda, Boringthanda, Hanumanthanda, Ramsinghthanda and Kottapallithand where the Banjara people are living. Now we have begun the visit their families with regular time table. They are very receptive and happy with our presence, their simple faith strengthen our own faith. It is the passion of our Bishop to develop this Banjara mission and to develop the Guanellian mission (Taking care of the Differently Able people, Orphan and Aged).

We are happy to be the part of this diocese and to collaborate for the development of the mission. May Our Lady of Divine Mercy intercede for us.
