TIRED OF CHRISTIAN DIVISIONS

Ardently desiring the wish of Jesus ‘that all of them may be one, Father, just as you are in me and I am in you’ (Jn 17:21), majority of Christians are tired of the division/s among Christians. It would not be an exaggeration to state that Christ Himself is more tired of Christian divisions! Many people express joy when prayers and programs of Christian unity towards unity are conducted. Those who take Christian faith and charity serious categorically state that disunity among Christians is not only a sin but also a crime. However, moves towards closer coexistence have been resisted by hardliners on both sides even in India and some kind of indifference in Telangana.

Irony of Broken Christianity to repair a Broken

World! : With the theme ‘From Conflict to Communion: Together in Hope’, the Holy Father Francis and Lutheran leaders in Lund in Sweden met on October 31, 2016 for two historic events: The commemoration of the start of the 500th anniversary of the Reformation launched by Martin Luther and the posting of his 95 theses in 1517, and the 50th anniversary of the start of the Catholic-Lutheran ecumenical dialogue, which Pope Francis said has “confirmed our desire to advance towards full communion.” Realizing the brokenness of Christianity as a paradox to unite the broken world with the Good news of Jesus, the leaders of the Catholics and of the Lutherans signed a joint declaration 'accepting common path of Reconciliation'.

‘Mea Culpa’ instead of ‘Tua Culpa’ : The declaration said : “While we are profoundly thankful for the spiritual and theological gifts received through the Reformation, we also confess and lament before Christ that Lutherans and Catholics have wounded the visible unity of the Church. Theological differences were accompanied by prejudice and conflicts, and religion was instrumentalized for political ends.” The two leaders prayed for wounds to be healed, saying: “We emphatically reject all hatred and violence, past and present especially that expressed in the name of religion.”

Moving Forward : The joint declaration closed by calling upon all Catholic and Lutheran church communities “to be bold and creative, joyful and hopeful in their commitment to continue the great journey ahead of us.” It said, “Rooted in Christ and witnessing to him, we renew our determination to be faithful heralds of God’s boundless love for all humanity.”

History Vs Mystery : The Mystery of Church is ‘For by one Spirit we were all baptized into one body’ (1 Cor 12.13). But the History, as the 2nd Vatican Council observed, unfortunately gave room for rifts and divisions in the Church from the beginning, and out of those rifts grew communities that are not blessed with the gift of the fullness of unity. Such was the Nestorian and Monophysite Churches of the East in places such as Syria and Egypt, the schism by which the Orthodox Church broke away from Communion with Rome, and the Reformation which gave rise to the Lutheran and Calvinist Churches denying the priesthood, the sacrifice of the Mass, the invocation of the saints, the veneration of relics, indulgences, and most importantly the authority of the Church’s Magisterium. England had its particular tragedy with the reformation of Henry VIII and Queen Elizabeth I, which gave rise to the Anglican Church. The Mushrooming of Pentecostal and independent communities are very many.

Globally and Locally : At the Universal level and national levels, every year there are many activities organised, and regular shared prayer so that we can co-operate with other good Christians where possible in giving witness to Christ. Locally too the interest in ecumenism had a prominent place immediately after Vatican II. In the renewed context of the signing of the Document by the Catholic and the Lutheran Churches, we need to recommit ourselves to this compelling apostolate in the diocese of Warangal by being little more generous towards non-catholic Christians. In our prayers and work for Christian unity, we should not limit ourselves to the traditional concern of unity with the Protestant, Anglican, and Pentecostal communities. Better relations with the Eastern Orthodox Churches are equally important. After 1000 years of split, Pope Francis and Russian Orthodox Patriarch Kirill embraced and signed a joint declaration on religious unity after their historic meeting in Havana, Cuba on February 11, 2016. As Pope John Paul II said if the Orthodox Churches were once again to be in full communion with Rome, the Church could again “breathe with both lungs”.

With New Hopes, Renewed Zeal for Mission, Wishes of English New Year 2017.

POPE'S VANI...

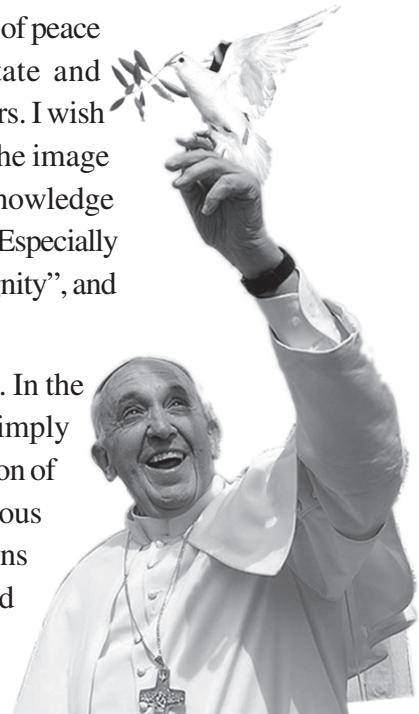

I. MESSAGE FROM POPE FRANCIS FOR THE 50th WORLD DAY OF PEACE

At the beginning of this New Year, I offer heartfelt wishes of peace to the world's peoples and nations, to heads of state and government, and to religious, civic and community leaders. I wish peace to every man, woman and child, and I pray that the image and likeness of God in each person will enable us to acknowledge one another as sacred gifts endowed with immense dignity. Especially in situations of conflict, let us respect this, our "deepest dignity", and make active nonviolence our way of life.

This is the fiftieth Message for the World Day of Peace. In the first, Blessed Pope Paul VI addressed all peoples, not simply Catholics, with utter clarity. "Peace is the only true direction of human progress – and not the tensions caused by ambitious nationalisms, nor conquests by violence, nor repressions which serve as mainstay for a false civil order". He warned of "the danger of believing that international controversies cannot be resolved by the ways of reason that is, by negotiations founded on law, justice, and equity, but only by means of deterrent and murderous forces.

On this occasion, I would like to reflect on nonviolence as a style of politics for peace. I ask God to help all of us to cultivate nonviolence in our most personal thoughts and values. May charity and nonviolence govern how we treat each other as individuals, within society and in international life. When victims of violence are able to resist the temptation to retaliate, they become the most credible promoters of nonviolent peacemaking. In the most local and ordinary situations and in the international order, may nonviolence become the hallmark of our decisions, our relationships and our actions, and indeed of political life in all its forms.

A reasonable choice : Nonviolence is therefore the most reasonable choice. Violence is however illusory: " Can violence achieve any goal of lasting value? Or does it merely lead to retaliation and a cycle of deadly conflicts that benefit only a few "warlords"? Violence is not the cure for our broken world. Countering violence with violence leads at best to forced migrations and enormous suffering, because vast amounts of resources are diverted to military ends and away from the everyday needs of young people, families experiencing hardship, the elderly, the infirm and the great majority of people in our world. At worst, it can lead to the death, physical and spiritual, of many people, if not of all".

To love our enemies, the magna carta of nonviolence : More positively, nonviolence is the "path traced" by Jesus Christ, who "tirelessly preached the unconditional love of God that welcomes and forgives and taught his disciples to love their enemies (cf. Mt 5:44) and to turn the other cheek (cf. Mt 5,39)". The Gospel of loving our enemy is "the magna carta of Christian nonviolence." In confirmation, Pope Francis cites a speech by Benedict XVI on 18 February 2007 in which he claimed that nonviolence "is realistic because it takes into account that in the world there is too much violence, too much injustice, and therefore that this situation cannot be overcome except by countering it with more love, with more goodness. This 'more' comes from God".

The fruits of nonviolence : Nonviolence is not "surrender, lack of involvement and passivity". On the contrary, it produces "impressive results". To demonstrate this, first of all Francis cites Mother Teresa, "an icon of our times" for peacemakers. He cites the speech that Mother gave on 1979 on receipt of the Nobel Peace Prize: "We in our family don't need bombs and guns, to destroy to bring peace – just get together, love one another... And we will be able to overcome all the evil that is in the world".

Family and politics : Jesus Christ taught that "The family is the indispensable crucible in which spouses, parents and children, brothers and sisters, learn to communicate and to show generous concern for one another, and in which frictions and even conflicts have to be resolved not by force but by dialogue, respect, concern for the good of the other, mercy and forgiveness. From within families, the joy of love spills out into the world and radiates to the whole of society. An ethics of fraternity and peaceful coexistence between individuals and among peoples cannot be based on the logic of fear, violence and closed-mindedness, but on responsibility, respect and sincere dialogue.

The Beatitudes, inspiration for politics : The "strategy of building peace" also has a "manual": the eight beatitudes. Francis proposes a programme and a challenge for political and religious leaders, the heads of international institutions, and business and media executives: to apply the Beatitudes in the exercise of their respective responsibilities" This means: "to show mercy by refusing to discard people, harm the environment, or seek to win at any cost. To do so requires "the willingness to face conflict head on, to resolve it and to make it a link in the chain of a new process" . The Pope assures that "I pledge the assistance of the Church in every effort to build peace through active and creative nonviolence.

In conclusion : As is traditional, I am signing this Message on 8 December, the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary. Mary is the Queen of Peace. At the birth of her Son, the angels gave glory to God and wished peace on earth to men and women of good will (cf. Luke 2:14). Let us pray for her guidance. "All of us want peace. Many people build it day by day through small gestures and acts; many of them are suffering, yet patiently persevere in their efforts to be peacemakers". In 2017, may we dedicate ourselves prayerfully and actively to banishing violence from our hearts, words and deeds, and to becoming nonviolent people and to build nonviolent communities that care for our common home. "Nothing is impossible if we turn to God in prayer. Everyone can be an artisan of peace".

II. POPE AND PRESIDENT OF LWF SIGN JOINT STATEMENT

POSSIBLE OF THE IMPOSSIBLE

Pope Francis and Bishop Mounib Younan, President of the Lutheran World Federation signed a Joint Statement on Monday in which Catholics and Lutherans pledged to pursue their dialogue in order to remove the remaining obstacles that hinder them from reaching full unity. They also stressed their commitment to common witness on behalf of the poor, the needy and the victims of injustice. The Declaration was signed during the ecumenical prayer service held in Lund's Lutheran Cathedral on the first day of the Pope's visit to Sweden.

JOINT STATEMENT

With thankful hearts : With this Joint Statement, we express joyful gratitude to God for this moment of common prayer in the Cathedral of Lund, as we begin the year commemorating the five hundredth anniversary of the Reformation. Fifty years of sustained and fruitful ecumenical dialogue between Catholics and Lutherans have helped us to overcome many differences, and have deepened our mutual understanding and trust. At the same time, we have drawn closer to one another through joint service to our neighbours – often in circumstances of suffering and persecution.

Through dialogue and shared witness we are no longer strangers. Rather, we have learned that what unites us is greater than what divides us.

Moving from Conflict to Communion : While we are profoundly thankful for the spiritual and theological gifts received through the Reformation, we also confess and lament before Christ that Lutherans and Catholics have wounded the visible unity of the Church. Theological differences were accompanied by prejudice and conflicts, and religion was instrumentalized for political ends. Our common faith in Jesus Christ and our baptism demand of us a daily conversion, by which we cast off the historical disagreements and conflicts that impede the ministry of reconciliation. While the past cannot be changed, what is remembered and how it is remembered can be transformed. We pray for the healing of our wounds and of the memories that cloud our view of one another. We emphatically reject all hatred and violence, past and present, especially that expressed in the name of religion. Today, we hear God's command to set aside all conflict. We recognize that we are freed by grace to move towards the communion to which God continually calls us.

Calling upon Catholics and Lutherans worldwide : We call upon all Lutheran and Catholic parishes and communities to be bold and creative, joyful and hopeful in their commitment to continue the great journey ahead of us. Rather than conflicts of the past, God's gift of unity among us shall guide cooperation and deepen our solidarity. By drawing close in faith to Christ, by praying together, by listening to one another, by living Christ's love in our relationships, we, Catholics and Lutherans, open ourselves to the power of the Triune God. Rooted in Christ and witnessing to him, we renew our determination to be faithful heralds of God's boundless love for all humanity.

"Great leadership usually starts with a willing heart, a positive attitude, and a desire to make a difference". If God's hand is on our life we probably feel like ordinary goal. our God given dream maybe too big for our abilities. But nothing is too big for God. Leadership certainly is it granted by electronics or

III. ASIAN BISHOPS END PLENARY CONSECRATING FAMILIES TO HOLY FAMILY

appointment. It is God's will for all people to full fill their potential and to stay on the mission. Our Bishop Most Rev. Uduamala Bala attend the Federation of Asian Bishops' Conference (FABC) on December 4 ended their eleventh plenary assembly consecrating Catholic families in Asia to the Holy Family of Nazareth. Cardinal Orlando B. Quevedo, Archbishop of Cotabato in the Philippines, led the recital of prayer inside St. Lucia's Cathedral of Archdiocese of Colombo.

The bishops addressed the theme “The Asian Catholic Family : Domestic Church of the Poor on a Mission of Mercy” during their November 28-December 4 plenary. The 159-word consecration prayer was read during a Mass led by FABC president Cardinal Oswald Gracias, Archbishop of Bombay. More than 3,000 people, including the plenary participants attended the Mass. The term “Holy Family” refers to a liturgical celebration in the Catholic Church in honor of Jesus, Mary and Joseph as a family. Besides, the Holy Family is deemed as a model or Christian families. “Jesus, Mary and Joseph, you lived in Asia.

O Holy Family of Nazareth, we consecrate to you today our Catholic families in Asia amidst the difficulties that they daily face. May they be families of love and prayer, in constant communion with God. May God our Father protect and give them strength in their daily striving to do His will. May the Holy Spirit inspire and guide them to reach out to other families, especially to those in need. May they experience the loving presence of Jesus in the joys and sorrows of their lives. Jesus, Mary and Joseph, be the companion of our Catholic families in Asia in their journey to become, in word and deed, domestic churches of the poor on a mission of mercy and compassion.

IV. MARY, MOTHER OF GOD - JANUARY 01

JESUS give us His Mother: Jesus gave us his Mother so that she would be the Mother of all humanity? After having considered the role of the Virgin Mary in the mystery of Christ and the Spirit, we should think about her role in the mystery of the Church. We know that the Virgin Mary is the Mother of Jesus Christ and, consequently, the Mother of God. But she is also the Mother of the Church, which is the Body of Christ. Because of this, the mission of Mary is totally inseparable from the mission of the Church. And it should be clearly stated that the role of Mary, as Mother of all humanity, in no way eclipses or diminishes Christ. On the contrary, her role can only help to clarify Christ's role. This is one of the reasons God decided to share his Mother with us.

Many non-Catholic Christians really don't pay much attention at all to the Blessed Virgin Mary. We Catholics, on the other hand, recognize her as the Queen of Heaven and Earth. We know that Jesus took her up to Heaven, body and soul, as soon as her earthly mission was over. This is the Dogma of the Assumption, defined by the Church with an infallible papal definition. It makes sense that the woman who bore God in her womb should be borne by God into Heaven and not left in a grave to turn back into dust. In fact, in the Old Testament, the Queen of the Kingdom of Israel was always the Queen Mother. One of King Solomon's first acts when his father David gave him the throne was to raise his mother Bathsheba to his side, to be the royal Queen - a mini-Assumption. There was a practical reason for this tradition: Old Testament Kings used to marry more than one wife, but the King had only one Mother, so she became Queen. But there was also a deeper, prophetic meaning at work. God was already planning to send the Messiah through a Virgin, to involve a Mother intimately in the Redemption, just as a mother (Eve) had been involved intimately in the Fall (original sin). God did it that way on purpose. God gives his Mother a special place in the ongoing history of salvation because He wants to tell us something about His love for us. His love is faithful, strong and indestructible, because He is our Father. But it is also gentle, patient, and ever-present, always watching over us - like a Mother. Mary, our heavenly Queen and spiritual Mother, reminds us of this.

1) Let us strive to be pure and holy like our Heavenly Mother : All mothers want their children to inherit or acquire their good qualities. Our Heavenly Mother is no exception. With Joseph, she succeeded in training the Child Jesus, so that He grew in holiness and in “favor before God and man.” Hence, our best way of celebrating this feast and honoring our Heavenly Mother would be to promise her that we will practice her virtues of Faith, obedience, purity and humble service. In this way, we will be trying to become the saintly sons and daughters of our Heavenly Mother, the Holy Mother of God.

2) We need our Heavenly Mother’s prayers to have a better physical life and spiritual life in the New Year : Let us ask for our Heavenly Mother’s help so that we may glorify God with a healthier physical and spiritual life and a better appreciation of life in a culture of death. We need a Super-Mother like Jesus’ mother Mary to stop millions of pregnant women from killing their babies by abortion and to encourage nations to enact and implement laws to stop homicides, suicides, “mercy”-killing and mass-murders by terrorist and fanatic groups.

3) We need to honor Mary as the mother of Jesus : “We honor Mary by actively participating in today’s Mass and in all the Marian feasts of the Church throughout the year. In these Masses and at other times, we give Mary hyperdulia, that is, highest honor, because of the gifts of grace God granted her and because of the way she responded to these gifts. We also honor her in all the forms of Marian prayer we say: The Rosary, the Angelus, the Regina Caeli, the Hail Holy Queen, the Memorare, and so on. These are prayers we should pray so often we have them memorized.

4) Three ways to make the New Year meaningful (William Barclay) : a) something to dream, b) something to do, and c) someone to love. “I have a dream” said Martin Luther King. We should all have a noble plan of action (dream a noble dream), for every day in the New Year. We need to remember the proverb: “Cherish your yesterdays, dream your tomorrows, but live your today.”

Have a Happy New Year, overflowing with a "Yes" to God our Father, to the Lord Jesus our Brother and to the Holy Spirit our Advocate and our Guide in every good deed His grace suggests! O, our God and our Hope, glory to You! A shoeshine boy was plying his trade in New York’s Grand Central Station. A silver medal danced at his neck as he slapped his shine cloth, again and again, across a man’s shoes. “Sonny,” said the man curiously, “what’s the hardware around your neck?” It’s a medal of the mother of Jesus,” the boy replied. “Why her medal?” said the man. “She’s no different from your mother.” “Could be,” said the boy, “but there’s a real big difference between her son and me.”

V. REPUBLIC DAY OF INDIA – 26 JANUARY

into the governing document of the India. At this day, a national holiday is declared by the Indian Government. The new Indian constitution was sketched and approved by the Indian Constituent Assembly and decided to celebrate it on 26th of January every year as India became a republic country. The chief guest on Republic Day of India will be Crown Prince of Abu Dhabi Sheikh Mohamed bin Zayed Al Nahyan. He will be the chief guest of Republic Day parade 26th of January 2017.

As Independence Day in India is celebrated to enjoy the freedom of India from the British Rule, Republic Day in India is celebrated to commemorate the coming of its own constitution into force. Officially it is celebrated every year in the national capital of India (New Delhi) at the Rajpath in the presence of the President of India. Mini celebrations are also take place in the state capitals in the presence of the governor of the state by spreading out the National Flag of the country. January 26 is declared as the gazetted holiday all over the country by the Government of India. It is celebrated throughout the India with great enthusiasm by the students and teachers in the schools, colleges, universities and other educational institution. An excellent parade and salute event is held by the military team at the Rajpath in front of the India Gate in the New Delhi, India.

VI. PONGAL

PONGAL is the only festival of Indian Culture that follows a solar calendar and is celebrated on the fourteenth of January every year.

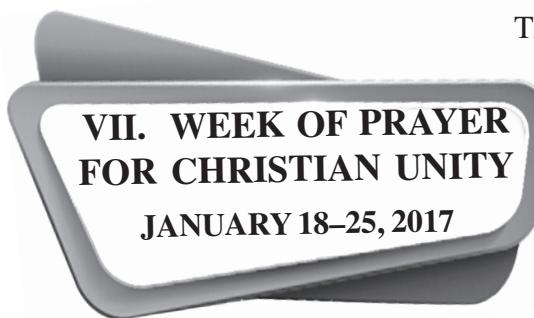

Pongal has astronomical significance: it marks the beginning of Uttarayana, the Sun's movement northward for a six month period. In Hinduism, Uttarayana is considered auspicious, as opposed to Dakshinaayana, or the southern movement of the sun. All important events are scheduled during this period. Makara Sankranthi refers to the event of the Sun entering the zodiac sign of Makara or Capricorn. In Hindu

REPUBLIC DAY in India is celebrated every year with great honour on 26th of January to honour the Constitution of India as it came into force on the same day in the year 1950. It had replaced the Government of India Act, 1935 temples bells, drums, clarinets and conch shells herald the joyous occasion of Pongal. To symbolize a bountiful harvest, rice is cooked in new pots until they boil over. Some of the rituals performed in the temple include the preparation of rice, the chanting of prayers and the offering of vegetables, sugar cane and spices to the gods. Devotees then consume the offerings to exonerate themselves of past sins.

Pongal signals the end of the traditional farming season, giving farmers a break from their monotonous routine. Farmers also perform puja to some crops, signaling the end of the traditional farming season. It also sets the pace for a series of festivals to follow in a calendar year. In fact, four festivals are celebrated in Tamil Nadu for four consecutive days in that week. 'Bogi' is celebrated on January 13, 'Pongal' on Jan 14, 'Maattuppongal' on Jan 15, and 'Thiruvalluvar Day' on Jan 17. The festival is celebrated for four days. On, the first day, Bhogi, the old clothes and materials are thrown away and fired, marking the beginning of a new life. The second day, the Pongal day, is celebrated by boiling fresh milk early in the morning and allowing it to boil over the vessel - a tradition that is the literal translation for Pongal. People also prepare savories and sweets, visit each other's homes, and exchange greetings. The third day, Mattu Pongal, is meant to offer thanks to the cows and buffaloes, as they are used to plough the lands. On the last day, Kanum Pongal, people go out to picnic. A festival called Jalli kathu is held in Madurai, Tiruchirapalli and Tanjavur, all in Tamil Nadu, on this day. Bundles of money are tied to the horns of Pongal ferocious bulls which the villagers try to retrieve. Everyone joins in the community meal, at which the food is made of the freshly harvested grain.

VII. WEEK OF PRAYER FOR CHRISTIAN UNITY
JANUARY 18–25, 2017

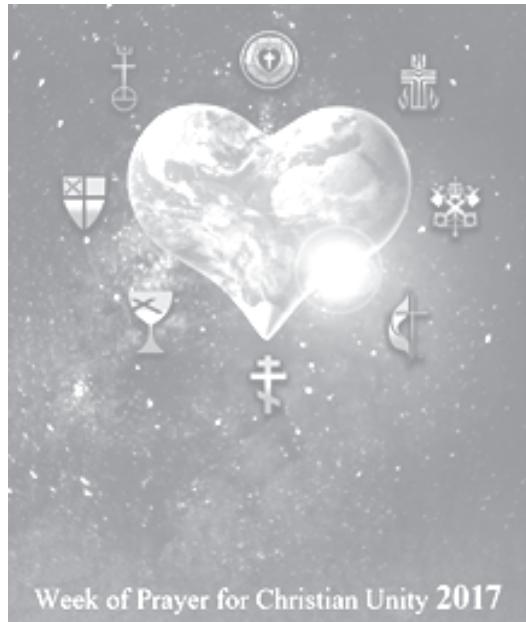

The Week of Prayer for Christian Unity gives Christians an annual opportunity to continue their quest for the unity they already share in Christ. It is also a time to gather in praise of the Triune God and to deepen the understanding of the ecumenical movement. By joining in this annual celebration Christians raise their voices, hands and hearts to God seeking the fulfillment of the prayer of Jesus, the Son of God, "that they all may be one."

The Week of Prayer also invites those who participate to use it as an opportunity to examine the effectiveness of the ecumenical movement in seeking to end the divisions among Christians. From the smallest to the largest communities, from all cultures, races and language groups, from all the baptized to all those in ordained ministry, the Week of Prayer is also an opportunity to ask examine the level of support they have given to this important movement in the life of the Church. An accounting of each Christian's discipleship and faithfulness to the proclamation of the Gospel—the good news of reconciliation—can be taken every year during the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity.

What follows are some suggestions that we hope can assist Christians in the experience of observing the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity and celebrating the 2017 theme of “Reconciliation – The Love of Christ Compels Us” (2 Corinthians 5:14-20) This is by no means a comprehensive listing. We hope that as you create your own opportunities of prayer for Christian unity you will share those with others. Each new experience of prayer and gathering provides the Christian faith community with opportunities to grow in our understanding of one another as we celebrate our unity and common mission.

4. From WADES Desk

Fear grips some students often at the thought of mathematics. Causes vary. But innovative teaching methods are breaking the fetters of such fear. Solid shapes and pyramids supplied by Opportunity Education Foundation have simplified the transfer of new knowledge on Maths to children. The CDs on science are captivating their minds to learn easily about animals, insects and environment. Maths and Science teachers are putting these materials to optimum use. We are thankful to OEF, our Bishop Most Rev.Dr.Udumala Bala and Mr.John, the South Indian Manager for this marvelous help and support routed via Warangal Diocese Educational Society (WADES). 7. THE STATEMENT OF THE XVI ANNUAL GENERAL BODY MEETING OF THE ASSOCIATION OF RECTORS OF MAJOR SEMINARIES (ARMS), OUR BISHOP IS PATRON OF ARMS

THEME: THE INTELLECTUAL FORMATION IN THE SEMINARIES

Introduction

This statement of the XVI Annual General Body Meeting of the Association of Rectors of Major Seminaries (ARMS), India, is that which has emerged from the discourses, discussions and directions, reflecting upon “intellectual formation,” one of the four dimensions of priestly formation, as envisaged in Pastores Dabo Vobis (PDV) and amplified in the Charter of Priestly Formation for India (CPFI). 64 Rectors of Major Seminaries and Study Houses participated in it.

Vision :

The intellectual dimension of priestly formation is more urgent today than ever before, as priests of present day need deeper spirituality, broader wisdom and practical strategy to make their service to God and humanity relevant, convincing and fruitful. Our philosophical and theological studies need to enable our priests to dialogue with the world, to read the signs of times, to respond to the concrete situations and issues, and to enable people of all religions to journey together in harmony towards their salvation. Only an effective application of philosophy and human sciences (cf. CPFI 3.2.3c) to our theology will enable our priests to positively face the present phenomenon of pluralism of religions, cultures and ideologies with appropriate critical discernment (cf. Optatam Totius, 1). A sound and relevant socio-cultural analysis of our context (cf. CPFI 3.2.3f) and a healthy integration of Christian faith with the scientific and ideological developments of present world (cf. CPFI 3.2.3c) are necessary for priestly ministry today. Seminary formation in India should discerningly draw upon India's rich cultural and spiritual heritage as well as its contemporary experience of modernization, globalization, scientific progress and struggle for human rights and social justice and thereby making our philosophical and theological formation more contextualized and more relevant (cf. CPFI 3.1.7). This will enable our priests to obey Christ's command to preach the Gospel to all nations (Mt 28:19-20) by effecting the Good News to penetrate every culture, to make it incarnate in every heart of goodwill, to heal the hurts of cross-cultural and inter-religious conflicts and to call everyone to peace, harmony, well-being and salvation.

Mission

1. Development of Emotional Intelligence. Emotional intelligence enables to know one's strengths and weaknesses, manage and channelize emotions and impulses, and adapt to changing circumstances.
2. Practical Intelligence. Practical intelligence is one of acquiring experience, and analysis of it, by questioning and seeking answers through correlation with Scripture, Tradition and Magisterium, and then discerning the appropriate action, leading to proclamation and witness.
3. Symbolic Intelligence. "Symbolic or imaginative intelligence" deals with things beyond the senses; therefore transcendent objects are expressed in symbols such as stories, art, music, poems and parables.
4. Addressing the present-day peoples' questions. Two relevant questions that are raised today as to whether objective knowledge is possible at all and whether our knowledge extends beyond sense objects can be asked. The formees should be able to look at the world with its problems, tensions, challenges and prospects.
5. Inclusive Approach. In exploring the philosophical questions it should not be limited to one system whether Western or Indian. No one rational system is adequate to talk about God.
6. Tools for Analysis. At the level of graduation, both in philosophy and theology, introducing the students to the human and the social sciences means giving them the tools for analysis and not a system. By this they should learn to read, reflect, speak and write.
7. Contextualised philosophic-theological study. Along with our preferential option for the poor and the subaltern, we need to dialogue with other strata of society too.

8. Inter-cultural Exchange in Search of Wisdom. It consists in the consciousness of being limited, and therefore not absolutizing, but being open to other cultures. The approach of Pope Francis is a guiding light in this direction.

Action Plan

1. Going beyond the banking method, the students should be taught to read, reflect, correlate, discuss, discern, and act.
2. Given the lack of proficiency of English language in many students, methods to improve the language should be adopted.
3. It is advisable to have only graduate students admitted for philosophical studies.
4. Personal academic accompaniment of students and motivating them should be encouraged for promoting an intellectual culture in the seminary.
5. Greater emphasis on inculturation, the why and how of it, should be made part of the curriculum.
6. Every seminary is to become a centre of dialogue where people of other faiths and cultures have access.
7. Professors should make use of their free-semesters and sabbaticals for getting acquainted with different cultures and contexts.
8. Greater emphasis should be placed on and sufficient time allotted for the study of Indian Philosophy.
9. A common handbook for the study of Philosophy and Theology is to be envisaged.
10. In doing philosophy and theology, the approach should be one of integration of the two alongwith human sciences.
11. Organise more exposure programmes both in rural and urban areas to facilitate contextual study.
12. Periodic updating by the professors in their discipline through regional and national level programmes should become mandatory.
13. The Regional or National level church organisations may fund the academic research of professors, producing books and scientific articles, while still remaining in India, without having to go abroad.
14. Periodic Academic Audit ought to be done for the whole seminary by experts.
15. Performance appraisal of professors should be done from the part of the students, peers, self and the administration.
16. The present day digital world and its possibilities in studies and in the dissemination of knowledge should be made use of.

Conclusion

The Lord Jesus called the apostles to be with him and to be sent out to proclaim the Good News (cf. Mk 3:14). To be with him was to learn from him and to go out was to search for new contexts where his Good News would come alive. It is hoped that this Statement, which includes an Action Plan, of XVI ARMS General Body would help seminarians and the staff in their intellectual formation of imbibing the Gospel and proclaiming it effectively.

దివ్యవాణి పురోగమనం....

తెలుగు టీవి చానెలు కావాలన్న తెలుగు కథోలికుల కల ఆగష్టు 31, 2016న ఉభయ తెలుగు రాష్ట్రాల 13 మంది మేత్రాలులు, 250 మంది గురువులు, 300 మంది కన్యాట్రీలు, 5000 మంది క్రైస్తవ విశ్వాసుల సమక్షంలో భారతదేశ అపోస్టలిక రాయబారి బిషప్ మహా ఘన. డాక్టర్ సెల్వతోర్ పెన్నాఫియో దివ్యబలిపూజతో ప్రారంభోత్సవం జరుపుకున్న దివ్యవాణి టీవి ద్వారా నిజమైంది. తెలుగునాట క్రీస్తు ఆగమనాన్ని కొన్ని లక్షల కుటుంబాలకు నిరంతరాయంగా తెలియజేయడానికి గొప్ప వేదిక సిద్ధమైంది.

దాదాపు నాలుగు నెలలు ఘృతి చేసుకున్న దివ్యవాణి టీవి, అంకిత భావంతో ఇంటింటా సువార్తనందిస్తూ అనేక కేబుల్ నెట్ వర్ష్ ద్వారా కొన్ని లక్షల కుటుంబాలను ఇప్పటికే చేరుకుంది. ఇంకా చేరని కుటుంబాలకు అతి త్వరలో డిటిపోచ్ ద్వారా మిగిలిన కేబుల్ నెట్ వర్ష్ ద్వారా అందించడానికి ప్రయత్నిస్తున్నాము. మీలో చాలా మంది దివ్యవాణి టీవి ప్రారంభోత్సవ కార్యక్రమాన్ని ప్రత్యక్ష ప్రసారం ద్వారా చూసారు. మమ్మల్ని అర్థం చేసుకొని ఓపికగా ఎదురుచూస్తున్న వారందరికి ధన్యవాదాలు.

ఈ సందర్భంగా రెండు ముఖ్యమైన విషయాలు మీ దృష్టికి తెస్తున్నాము. రెండు తెలుగు రాష్ట్రాలలో టీవి ఉన్న గృహాలకు 45% కేబుల్ ద్వారా, 15% డిటిపోచ్ ద్వారా ప్రసారాలు అందించబడుతున్నాయి. ఒక్క ప్రాధాబాదీలో 50:50 నిష్పత్తితో జరుగుతుంది. ఎమ్.యస్.బిలు మరియు డిటిపోచ్ నిర్వాహకులు లక్షలు, కోట్లు క్యార్బేజి ఫీగా అడుగుతున్నారు. కాబట్టి వారితో మనకు అందుబాటులో ఉండే ఒప్పందం కుదుర్చుకోవడానికి కొంత సమయం పడుతుంది. దేవుని సహాయంతో మంచి ఒప్పందాలే జరిగాయి అని తెలియజేయడానికి సంతోషంగా ఉంది.

ఈ సందర్భంగా మీరు చేయాల్సినది కూడా ఒకటి ఉంది. మీరు మీ ప్రాంతంలోని కేబుల్ / డిటిపోచ్ నిర్వాహకులకు మాకు దివ్యవాణి టీవి చానెల్ కావాలని ఫోను చేసి ఒకటికి రెండుసార్లు అడగండి. మీ డిమాండ్ వల్ల అనతికాలంలో ఘృతిగా కాని, పాక్షికంగా కాని ఎలాంటి చెల్లింపుల ఖర్చులేకుండా దివ్యవాణి ప్రసారాలను పొందే అవకాశం ఉంది. ఇలా చేయడం వల్లనే కేరళలోని పాలోమ్ టీవి, తమిళనాడులోని మాడా టీవి నూరు శాతం ప్రసారాలను ఉచితంగా పొందలిగాయి. ఈ విధంగా దివ్యవాణి సంవత్సరానికి చెల్లించాల్సిన మూడుకోట్ల రూపాయలను మొత్తంలో ఎంతోకొంత తగ్గించిన వారవుతారు.

ఇప్పటి వరకు దాతలు 7.5 కోట్ల రూపాయల విరాళాలు ఇచ్చారని తెలియజేయుటకు సంతోషిస్తున్నాము. అప్పగా తెచ్చిన ఒక కోటి రూపాయలను కలుపుకొని మొత్తం 8.5 కోట్లు. ఈ మొత్తం నుండి 2.25 కోట్లు దివ్యవాణి టీవి స్థాపన మరియు జోనల్ సెంటర్లు స్థాడియోల నిర్మాణానికి వెచ్చించాము. ఇంకా మిగిలిన టీ.వి. స్థాపనా పనులు ఘృతి చేయడానికి 1.5 కోట్లు కావాలి. అయితే టీవి స్థాపనకు 5 కోట్లు అంచనా వ్యయముగా నిఱయించినపుటికి, అంత కన్నా చాల తక్కువ ఖర్చు చేసామని తెలియజేయుటకు సంతుష్టించుచున్నాము.

మన దివ్యవాణి టీవి ప్రసారాలకు సాంకేతిక మాధ్యమ వేదికలన్నిటిని గరిష్టంగా వినియోగించుకొంటున్నాము. దివ్యవాణి టీవి ప్రత్యక్ష ప్రసారాలను www.divyavani.tv లోను, అలాగే మీరు కోరుకున్న సమయాల్లో Youtube లోను చూడవచ్చు అలాగే దివ్యవాణి యాప్సు డౌన్‌లోడ్ చేసుకుని మీ Mobile - Android

మరియు iOS లో చూడవచ్చు. దివ్యవాణి టీవి 50 రకాలైన కార్బ్రూక్మాలను ప్రసారం చేస్తుంది. అందులో 20 ప్రాయోజిత కార్బ్రూక్మాలు వారమంతా రాత్రి 7 గంలాల నుండి 10 గంటల వరకు ప్రసారమవుతున్నాయి. ఎంతో అద్భుతమైన కార్బ్రూక్మాలను రూపొందిస్తున్న ప్రోడ్యూసర్స్కు, షోహాస్ట్స్కు, వివిధ కార్బ్రూక్మాలతో పాల్గొన్న వారికి మరియు క్రీస్తు సందేశాలను అందిస్తున్న గురువులకు, అద్భుతమైన కంటెంట్స్ కార్బ్రూక్మాల రూపకల్పన చేస్తున్న ప్రతి ఒక్కరికి హృదయపూర్వక వందనములు. నుమారు 400 విచారణల నుండి 2 కోట్ల ర్ఘతలు విరాళంగా సేకరించుటకు కృషిచేసిన విచారణ గురువులకు, దివ్యవాణి టీవి ఏర్పాటుకు 3 కోట్ల విరాళం వాగ్దానం చేసి ఇప్పటికే ఒక కోటి ముపై లక్ష్మలు అందించిన CRI కి, షోషక నాయకత్వం వహించే TCBC లోని మేత్రాణులకు, బోర్డ్ అఫ్ డైరెక్టర్లకు నా హృదయ పూర్వక కృతజ్ఞతలు.

ప్రతినెలా 45 లక్షలకు పైగా దివ్యవాణి టీవికి నిర్వహణ భర్తు అవుతున్నందువల్ల సంవత్సరానికి దాదాపు 6 కోట్ల కావలసి ఉంది. ఈ మంచి పనిని నిర్విష్టుంగా కొనసాగించడానికి ఈ క్రింది విధంగా సహాయమందించి, ఆత్మలను రక్షించే ఈ నిరంతర సువార్తా యజ్ఞంలో భాగస్వాములు కావాలని ఆ దేవుని పేరట మిమ్మె కోరుచున్నాము.

1. ప్రతి కుటుంబం ఇంటింటా సువార్తా ప్రచారంలో 24×7 పాలు పంచుకొనుటకు మీ వంతుగా నెలకు రూ. 100 లేదా రూ. 200 విరాళం పంపించండి.
2. మీ విచారణలో జరిపే దివ్యబలిపూజను సంవత్సరానికి ఒకసారి ప్రసారం చేయండి. ప్రసార విరాళంగా రూ. 8,000/- చెల్లించండి.
