I. July - Month of Precious Blood of Jesus

“Redeemed by the Precious Blood of Christ” (1 Peter 1:19)

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

As we enter the month of July, the Church invites us to contemplate more deeply the Precious Blood of Jesus Christ, through which we have received the gift of salvation. This devotion is not only a remembrance of Christ’s suffering but a profound reflection on God’s immense love and mercy poured out for each of us.

The Precious Blood is the price of our redemption, the seal of the New Covenant, and the source of grace in the sacraments — especially the Holy Eucharist. Every drop that Jesus shed during His Passion is a reminder that we are not forgotten, we are not forsaken — we are deeply loved.

In today’s world, where violence, injustice, and despair often stain human dignity, the Blood of Christ speaks a different word: healing, reconciliation, and hope. As Christians, we are called to be witnesses of that hope — to proclaim, by word and action, the redeeming power of Christ’s sacrifice.

Let this month be a time for:

- Deeper Eucharistic devotion, recognizing the Real Presence of Christ’s Body and Blood.
- Reparation and intercession, offering our prayers and sacrifices for the Church and the world.
- Works of mercy, as an expression of the love that Christ showed us on the Cross.

May the Precious Blood of Jesus protect our families, strengthen our parishes, and renew our diocese with grace and unity.

Wishing you a blessed and fruitful month in the Lord!

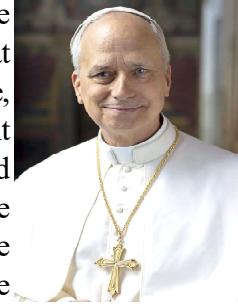

In Christ the Redeemer,
Rev. Fr. D. Vijaya Paul
Administrator, Diocese of Warangal

II. Holy Father's Intention for July: For formation in discernment

Let us pray that we might again learn how to discern, to know how to choose paths of life, and reject everything that leads us away from Christ and the Gospel.

III. Pope Leo XIV echoes Pope Pius XII's historic appeal for peace

In 1939, Pius XII issued his famous appeal by radio as the world stood on the brink of the Second World War. The Pope's words, which went unheard at the time, were echoed today by Leo XIV at the end of the General Audience, to call for peace in the face of the current climate of tension and violence. At the conclusion of his General Audience on Wednesday, Pope Leo XIV issued a heartfelt appeal for peace, recalling the dramatic words spoken by Pope Pius XII just days before the outbreak of the Second World War. Citing the historic radio message delivered by Pope Pius XII on 24 August 1939, Pope Leo invoked the same phrase with which his predecessor sought to avert global conflict:

“Nothing is lost with peace. All may be lost with war.”

The voice of reason before the storm

Pius XII had been elected just months earlier, following the death of Pius XI, and had served as his Secretary of State for nine years. His message, broadcast from Castel Gandolfo at 7 p.m. that day, came after news reached the Vatican of the signing of the Nazi-Soviet Pact, a development that made war seem inevitable. “It is by the force of reason, not the force of arms, that justice makes its way,” Pope Pius XII proclaimed. “Empires not founded on justice are not blessed by God. Politics divorced from morality betrays those who promote it.”

He added, with urgency:

“The danger is imminent, but there is still time. Nothing is lost with peace. All may be lost with war. Let men return to mutual understanding. Let them resume negotiations. By negotiating with goodwill and respect for each other’s rights, they will find that sincere and effective agreements are always possible and can lead to honourable success.”

The speech was based on a draft prepared by then-Substitute of the Secretariat of State, Giovanni Battista Montini, who would later become Pope Paul VI. Pius XII personally edited the text before delivering it. Montini was present at the Pope’s side as he read the message.

A warning unheeded

Despite the Pope’s impassioned plea, his voice went unheard. On 1 September 1939, German troops invaded Poland, triggering the Second World War. By recalling these words today, Pope Leo XIV sought to cast a light from the past onto the present, inviting the world once again to choose dialogue over destruction, and peace over war.

In a time marked by growing tensions and outbreaks of violence, the Pope’s reminder of his predecessor’s appeal resonates with renewed urgency: the path of peace remains open, but it demands courage, conscience, and commitment.

CIRCULAR LETTER To be read in all Churches across India

Subject: Coaching for Judicial Service Examination (CJSE) for Young Catholic Lawyers

Dear Brothers in the Episcopate, Reverend Fathers and lay faithful,
Greetings of peace and hope in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

It gives me immense joy to share a significant initiative undertaken by the CBCI Legal Cell:
Coaching for Judicial Service Examination (CJSE) for young Catholic lawyers belonging to our dioceses and parishes across India. This program is a timely and vital response to the pressing need for Catholic presence and witness in the Indian judiciary.

The inauguration of this coaching programme will take place on July 3, 2025, the Feast of St. Thomas the Apostle, Patron of India and a symbol of faith, courage, and commitment. May his intercession inspire our young legal minds to serve with integrity and Gospel values.

I take this opportunity to appreciate and thank our Catholic Senior Lawyers who have come forward to take up this noble responsibility under the aegis of the CBCI Legal Cell.

I urge all Bishops and Priests to encourage eligible young Catholic lawyers who have an aptitude in your dioceses and parishes to apply and make use of this unique opportunity. Let us collectively nurture a generation of committed, competent, and Christ-centered professionals in the field of law and justice.

For course details and further information, kindly contact:

FATIMA VANI - JULY - 2025

V. Solemnity of St. Thomas, Apostle of India- July 3 “Indian Christian Day” an Ecumenical Venture

St. Thomas (born, probably Galilee died 53 ce, Madras, India; Western feast day December 21, feast day in Roman and Syrian Catholic churches July 3, in the Greek church October 6) was one of the Twelve Apostles. His name in Aramaic (Te^¾oma) and Greek (Didymos) means “twin”; John 11:16 identifies him as “Thomas, called the Twin.” He is called Judas Thomas (i.e., Judas the Twin) by the Syrians.

It is believed that Christianity came to India in AD 52, much ahead of many other nations in the world. It is said that the 12 apostles, in their eagerness to fulfill Jesus's command, known as the Great Commission, cast lots among themselves to see who goes where. Accordingly, Peter went to Rome, James to Spain, and Thomas, to India. He traveled through land and sea and arrived in an area in India, called, Malabar, today's Kerala and preached the good news of the gospel. Then he went to Chennai, known at that time as Madras and preached the gospel. It was in Chennai Thomas received his crown of martyrdom. On his tomb now stands a magnificent basilica, known as San Thome Basilica. Thus, Thomas became one of the only three of the apostles on whose tombs churches were built; the other two being, St. Peter's basilica in Rome, erected on the tomb of St Peter, Basilica of Santiago de Compostela in Spain, erected on the tomb of the apostle St James.

St. Thomas got his nickname ‘doubting Thomas’, only after he refused to believe that Jesus is risen. It may not have been his doubt that made Thomas disbelieve that the Lord is risen, but his grief. He was grieving,” his grief for Jesus was such that it would not let him believe that his Master was risen, and therefore his statement” unless I actually saw him and touched his wounds.... Thomas’ strength was in his physical loyalty to the Lord. Thomas acted as a protector, a shield for Jesus and was even ready to die with Jesus as we read in John 11: 16, When the Lord told the disciples that He was going back into hostile territory, Thomas was ready to go and die with Him. Thomas not only loved Jesus but he proclaimed Jesus to be “my Lord and my God”.

Finally, There are two similarities between Jesus’s death and Thomas’s death. These two stand out and connect Jesus’s death to Thomas’s death. Jesus earned the wrath of the priestly class, the High Priest and his cohort who put him to death. Thomas earned the wrath of the Brahmins, the priestly class of India and they had him killed. The other being, Jesus was pierced by a lance/spear from the front, when he hung on the cross, Thomas was pierced by a lance/spear from the back while praying and the spear reached his heart.

VI. Feast of St. Mary Magdalene- July 22

On July 22, the Church celebrates the Feast of St. Mary Magdalene, one of the most prominent women mentioned in the New Testament. Her name comes from the town of Magdala in Galilee, where she was born. Scripture introduces her as a woman “who had been healed of evil spirits and infirmities: Mary, called Magdalene, from whom seven demons had gone out” (Lk. 8:2). Some scholars identify Mary Magdalene with the sinful woman who anointed the feet of Christ with oil in the house of Simon the Pharisee (Lk. 7:36-50). Others associate her with Mary, the sister of Martha and Lazarus (Lk. 10:38-42, Jn. 11). Some believe the three figures to be one person, while others believe them to be three distinct individuals.

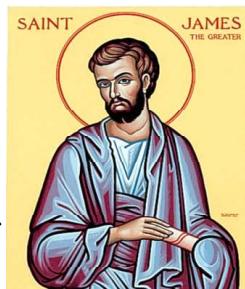

What the Scriptures make certain about Mary Magdalene is that she was a follower of Christ, who accompanied and ministered to him (Lk. 8:2-3). The Gospels record her as being one of the women present at Christ’s crucifixion. In addition, she was the first recorded witness of the Resurrection. The Gospels all describe Mary Magdalene going to the tomb on Easter morning. When she saw that the tomb was empty, she stood outside, weeping. Jesus appeared to her and asked her, “Woman, why are you weeping? Whom are you looking for?” (Jn. 20:15) She did not recognize him, however, and thought he was the gardener, until he said her name, “Mary!” (Jn. 20:16) Upon hearing this, Mary recognized him. She returned to the grieving disciples to announce to them the message of the Resurrection.

Pope Benedict XVI spoke about Mary Magdalene in his address before the Angelus on July 23, 2006. He referred to her as “a disciple of the Lord who plays a lead role in the Gospels.” The Pope recalled Mary Magdalene’s presence “beneath the Cross” on Good Friday, as well as how “she was to be the one to discover the empty tomb” on Easter morning.

“The story of Mary of Magdala reminds us all of a fundamental truth,” Pope Benedict said. “A disciple of Christ is one who, in the experience of human weakness, has had the humility to ask for his help, has been healed by him and has set out following closely after him, becoming a witness of the power of his merciful love that is stronger than sin and death.”

VII. Feast of St. James, the Apostle-July 25

James, the brother of John the Evangelist, was the first Apostle to be martyred. He was beheaded by order of Herod of Agrippa. The Gospels tell us that the two brothers left their father, Zebedee, and followed Jesus as soon as He called out to them. James was one of the three Apostles who were particularly close to the Lord. He was there with the Lord and his brother, John, and Peter at the Transfiguration and in the Garden of Gethsemane.

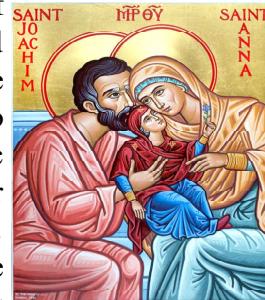

He is known as James “the Greater” to distinguish him from the other Apostle by the same name. The title has little to do with his function or the people’s regard for him. Rather, it was a term indicating that he was the elder of the two. He is the patron saint of Spain and of pilgrims. In northwestern Spain, he is venerated at Santiago de Compostela, a mediaeval pilgrimage site that is still very popular today.

VIII. Feast of Sts. Joachim and Anne – July 26

Feast Day wishes to all St. Ann’s Congregations/ Convents

On July 26 the Roman Catholic Church commemorates the parents of the Virgin Mary, Saints Joachim and Anne. The couple’s faith and perseverance brought them through the sorrow of childlessness, to the joy of conceiving and raising the immaculate and sinless woman who would give birth to Christ. The New Testament contains no specific information about the lives of the Virgin Mary’s parents, but other documents outside of the Biblical canon do provide some details. Although these writings are not considered authoritative in the same manner as the Bible, they outline some of the Church’s traditional beliefs about Joachim, Anne and their daughter.

The “Protoevangelium of James,” which was probably put into its final written form in the early second century, describes Mary’s father Joachim as a wealthy member of one of the Twelve Tribes of Israel. Joachim was deeply grieved, along with his wife Anne, by their childlessness. “He called to mind Abraham,” the early Christian writing says, “that in the last day God gave him a son Isaac.” Joachim and Anne began to devote themselves to rigorous prayer and fasting, in isolation from one another and from society. They regarded their inability to conceive a child as a surpassing misfortune, and a sign of shame among the tribes of Israel. As it turned out, however, the couple were to be blessed even more abundantly than Abraham and Sarah. An angel revealed this to Anne when he appeared to her and prophesied that all generations would honor their future child: “The Lord has heard your prayer, and you shall conceive, and shall bring forth; and your seed shall be spoken of in all the world.” After Mary’s birth, according to the Protoevangelium of James, Anne “made a sanctuary” in the infant girl’s room, and “allowed nothing common or unclean” on account of the special holiness of the child. The same writing records that when she was one year old, her father “made a great feast, and invited the priests, and the scribes, and the elders, and all the people of Israel.”

“And Joachim brought the child to the priests,” the account continues, “and they blessed her, saying: ‘O God of our fathers, bless this child, and give her an everlasting name to be named in all generations’ … And he brought her to the chief priests; and they blessed her, saying: ‘O God most high, look upon this child, and bless her with the utmost blessing, which shall be forever.’” The protoevangelium goes on to describe how Mary’s parents, along with the temple priests, subsequently decided that she would be offered to God as a consecrated Virgin for the rest of her life, and enter a chaste marriage with the carpenter Joseph.

IX. World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly- July 27

Pope Francis established the World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly in 2021. The day takes place annually on the fourth Sunday of July, on or close to the July 26 Feast of Sts. Anne and Joachim, the grandparents of Jesus. This year, it will be celebrated on July 28. The Vatican unveiled the theme for the third celebration of the day, “Do not cast me off in my old age” (cf. Ps 71:9): The theme chosen by the Holy Father for the occasion “intends to emphasize how grandparents and the elderly are a value and a gift both for society and for ecclesial communities”. “The day is an invitation to reconsider and value grandparents and the elderly who are too often kept on the margins of families, civil and ecclesial communities. Their experience of life and faith can contribute, in fact, to building societies that are aware of their roots and capable of dreaming of a future based on greater solidarity”, continues the statement, adding that “the invitation to listen to the wisdom of the years is also particularly significant in the context of the synodal journey that the Church has undertaken.” Finally, the statement concludes stressing that the Dicastery for Laity, Family and Life “invites parishes, dioceses, associations and ecclesial communities throughout the world to find ways to celebrate the Day in their own pastoral context, and for this purpose, it will later make available some appropriate pastoral tools.”

X. St. Alphonsa- July 28

Saint Alphonsa lived a saintly life and was recognized as a saintly person during her lifetime. Even at a young age she showed a great zeal for suffering and she used to pray fervently and longed for sacrifice and fasting as and when possible. She believed that she must endure all things that tests her will and offer them to the Lord. It is said that in spite of her painful diseases, she was cheerful to the last. It was her students who established the cult of Saint Alphonsa. After her death, they began visiting her tomb and offering prayers. As they continued, they started receiving favours. Ever since, her tomb has been a centre of pilgrimage and innumerable miracles. The first officially confirmed miracle was that of, a disabled child miraculously cured of his ailment and his limbs restored, due to prayers at the altar of Sister Alphonsa's shrine.

The miracle was approved in 1985 and the beatification of Sister Alphonsa was proclaimed by Pope John Paul II, during his visit to India in 1986. There is a two floored structure in front of the shrine which was originally the Papal podium for the beatification ceremony on 8 Feb.1986. Sister Alphonsa became Saint Alphonsa after she was canonized by Pope Benedict XVI at a ceremony at St. Peter's Square, Vatican on 12 October 2008. The Clarist convent where Sr. Alphonsa lived is located near St. Mary's Syro-Malabar Catholic Forane Church in Bharananganam. There is a museum adjacent to the convent chapel where the personal belongings of the Saint are well preserved. The feast is celebrated on the death anniversary of the saint which falls on 28th July. It was on this day in 1946 that Alphonsa flew off on the wings of grace to be in the beatific presence of her Maker.

XI. Memorial of Saints Martha, Mary and Lazarus– July 29

In the household of Bethany the Lord Jesus experienced the family spirit and friendship of Martha, Mary and Lazarus, and for this reason the Gospel of John states that he loved them. Martha generously offered him hospitality, Mary listened attentively to his words and Lazarus promptly emerged from the tomb at the command of the One who humiliated death. The traditional uncertainty of the Latin Church about the identity of Mary—the Magdalene to whom Christ appeared after his resurrection, the sister of Martha, the sinner whose sins the Lord had forgiven—which resulted in the inclusion of Martha alone on 29 July in the Roman Calendar, has been resolved in recent studies and times, as attested by the current Roman Martyrology, which also commemorates Mary and Lazarus on that day. Moreover, in some particular calendars the three siblings are already celebrated together.

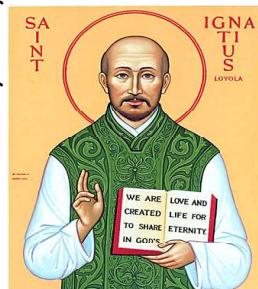

Therefore, the Supreme Pontiff Pope Francis, considering the important evangelical witness they offered in welcoming the Lord Jesus into their home, in listening to him attentively, in believing that he is the resurrection and the life, and accepting the proposal of this Dicastery, has decreed that 29 July be designated in the General Roman Calendar as the Memorial of Saints Martha, Mary and Lazarus. This feast is celebrated today both in the Ordinary Form and Extraordinary Form of the Roman Rite.

XII. Feast of Ignatius of Loyola - July 31

Feast Day Wishes to All Jesuits

St. Ignatius Loyola was born in 1491, one of 13 children of a family of minor nobility in northern Spain. As a young man Ignatius Loyola was inflamed by the ideals of courtly love and knighthood and dreamed of doing great deeds. But in 1521 Ignatius was gravely wounded in a battle with the French. While recuperating, Ignatius Loyola experienced a conversion. Reading the lives of Jesus and the saints made Ignatius happy and aroused desires to do great things. Ignatius realized that these feelings were clues to God's direction for him.

Over the years, Ignatius became expert in the art of spiritual direction. He collected his insights, prayers, and suggestions in his book the Spiritual Exercises, one of the most influential books on the spiritual life ever written. With a small group of friends, Ignatius Loyola founded the Society of Jesus, or the Jesuits. Ignatius conceived the Jesuits as “contemplatives in action.” This also describes the many Christians who have been touched by Ignatian spirituality.

7. News from WADES: Inaugural Ceremony of the New Academic Year 2025-26 at St Mother Teresa ICSE International School on 21-06-2025

The Academic Year program at our school was a grand celebration of knowledge, creativity, and unity. The event began with a warm welcome extended to the gathering by Fr Deva Raj Polamarasetty, setting a cordial and joyful tone. This was followed by the traditional lighting of the lamp by our Chief Guest, Dr Shashank, our Principal, Rev Fr Jaya Paul, Guests of Honor, Mr. Santhosh and Mr. Sai Prasad symbolizing the dispelling of darkness and the ushering in of wisdom. We honored our patroness St Mother Teresa with a garland. Then a unique and heart-touching moment followed with the reading of sacred scriptures from three major religions —the Bible, the Bhagavad Gita, and the Quran, promoting values of peace, respect, and inclusiveness; the children put forth the petitions before God for the fruitful academic year and the staff led the congregation in a melodious rendition of the hymn “Showers of Blessing.” The stage then came alive with a vibrant and adorable dance performance by our little children, capturing the hearts of all present. Our esteemed Chief Guest, Dr Shashank addressed the gathering with an inspiring speech, encouraging students to pursue excellence and embrace values. A major highlight of the day was the AI Robotics Demonstration, where students were thrilled to see the demonstration, creativity and understanding of emerging technologies. This was followed by an informative session on the importance of Vedic Maths and Abacus, underlining the value of combining traditional techniques with modern learning methods. The theme of the day was “Dare to Dream”, highlighting in his speech about it, our respected Principal, Rev Fr Jaya Paul then addressed the audience with words of appreciation, motivation, and vision for the future, acknowledging the efforts of students, staff, and parents alike. The program concluded with the respectful singing of our National Anthem, “Jana Gana Mana,” filling every heart with pride and patriotism. Overall, the day was a remarkable blend of learning, culture, and inspiration—a true reflection of the holistic education our school imparts.

8. News from Youth Centre: Regional Youth Directors Meeting Held in Hyderabad on June 12, 2025. Youth Directors from various dioceses across the region gathered in Hyderabad for a successful Regional Youth Directors' Meeting. Approximately 50 members participated in the program, aimed at fostering greater engagement and motivation among young people.

The meeting was graced by the presence of Most Rev. Rayarala Vijay Kumar, Bishop of Sreekakulam, who offered guidance and delivered an inspiring message to the youth directors and, by extension, the youth they serve.

The program featured a dynamic blend of activities, including action songs and group dynamic sessions, which encouraged active participation and collaboration. Attendees also engaged in group discussions, providing a valuable platform to share diverse views and opinions on youth ministry. A key outcome of the meeting was the formulation of concrete decisions to motivate and encourage youth within their respective dioceses. The participants expressed confidence that these initiatives would lead to more vibrant and engaged youth communities.

10. Report on Valedictory Ceremony of the 3rd Summer Music Crash Course

Under the able leadership, guidance, and kind cooperation of Rev. Fr. Duggimpudi Vijaya Paul Reddy, Administrator of the Diocese of Warangal, St. Cecilia Music Academy successfully conducted both theoretical and practical classes in Keyboard, Rhythm Pads, and Vocals. Around 25 students enrolled and successfully completed their respective courses of interest. Throughout the month, they were trained by renowned and experienced mentors. The Valedictory Ceremony was held on June 4th, 2025, at 6:30 PM at the Pastoral Centre. The program commenced with a welcome dance, prayer, and the lighting of the lamp by the Chief Guest, Rev. Fr. D. Vijaya Paul, along with the Guests of Honour: Rev. Fr. T. Joseph, Fr. Asheervadam, Fr. L. Prakash (Diocese of Jhansi), Fr. Surender N., Fr. G. Anukiran, Sr. Mounika, FMM and the core committee members. This was followed by short greetings from the dignitaries.

The Chief Guest addressed the gathering with his inspiring and thought-provoking message, stating that the ultimate goal of music is to glorify our Triune God. He emphasized that each person is a gift from God, and music is a divine gift that must be exercised responsibly. Highlighting the spiritual power of music, he noted that it “adds life to liturgy” and reminded everyone of the famous saying of St. Augustine: “He who sings, prays twice.” Following the address, the students showcased various class exercises taught during the course. The program continued with: Certificate distribution, Felicitation of the Chief Guest, Guests of Honour, and Teachers, Group photo session, Vote of thanks and Fellowship meal (Agape) Parents, along with their children, graced the occasion and were deeply moved by the students’ final presentations. The evening concluded with a joyful Agape meal shared by all participants. A total of approximately 100 people attended the program.
